Council President Gloria Proposes Committee Appointments for Councilmember Cole

SAN DIEGO, CA (June 3, 2013) – San Diego City Council President Todd Gloria today welcomed Myrtle Cole as the new Councilmember representing District Four and released his proposal to appoint her to Council committees and external organizations.

“I am extremely pleased to welcome Myrtle Cole to the San Diego City Council,” said Council President Gloria. “The appointments I have proposed take into account her focus on neighborhood services, and know she will well serve Council District Four and the entire City of San Diego.”

Council President Gloria proposed Councilmember Cole serve on the following City Council committees.

- Infrastructure, Vice Chair
- Land Use and Housing, Member
- Public Safety and Neighborhood Services, Member

Along with the Mayor, Council President Gloria recommended Cole represent the City with the following agencies and organizations.

- SANDAG Board of Directors, Second Alternate to the Mayor
- SANDAG Public Safety Committee, Alternate
- SANDAG Transportation Committee, Second Alternate
- City-County Reinvestment Task Force, Representative

The City Council will consider the appointments next week. If approved, the appointments will go into effect immediately.
