City Council to Proclaim July “LGBT Pride Month” in San Diego

SAN DIEGO, CA (July 13, 2015) – The San Diego City Council will proclaim July “LGBT Pride Month” at its meeting Tuesday, July 14 at 10:00 a.m. Councilmember Todd Gloria will present the proclamation to a representative from San Diego LGBT Pride in the Council Chambers, 202 C Street, 12th floor.

“The City of San Diego has long been on the record in support of LGBT equality, and proclaiming July Pride Month is a way to acknowledge our successes and take stock of the challenges that remain,” said Councilmember Gloria.

The 41st annual LGBT Pride celebration in San Diego will take place July 17 – 19 with festivities including a parade, a two-day music festival, a street fair, a rally, a 5K race, and many other events. The LGBT Pride Parade, which kicks off at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, July 18 from the Pride Flag Monument at University Avenue and Normal Street, is San Diego’s largest single-day event every year.

Councilmember Gloria and the Mayor also displayed Pride flags at the City Administration Building on July 7 in recognition of Pride Month.
