Myrtle's Message
Special Legislative Recess Edition

My weekly e-Newsletter is published on Wednesdays. It is designed to be informative about important actions taken during the Monday and Tuesday City Council meetings. It also includes information about upcoming committee meetings, district events, as well as my job board. It is the community's newsletter.

There are times during the calendar year when City Council has legislative recess. This week is a legislative recess week. During this time, we still work hard to get things done for you. I want to take legislative recess week and share some online resources that are available at your fingertip:

- Did you miss an e-publication? There are archives of the e-News available: <http://www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/cd4/newsevents/newsletters/2014.shtml>
- Request a NEW red or blue curb, stop sign, and other traffic engineering services: <http://www.sandiego.gov/tsw/servicerequests/trafficrequest.shtml>
- To report graffiti, a street light outage, a pothole, cracked sidewalks & more: http://apps.sandiego.gov/streetdiv/sreq_t1.jsp
- Video Archives | Take a quick look at what I've been doing around town: <http://www.sandiego.gov/citycouncil/cd4/galleries/2014videos/index.shtml>
- OPEN DSD | Pay for permits online or get the status of neighborhood code enforcement issues & more: <http://www.sandiego.gov/development-services/opensd/>

I am committed to serving the residents of my district and the City is committed to improving how information is provided to our residents. We are making a difference!

Honoring Officer Archie Buggs | Officer Buggs was assigned to the Southeastern Division. He served with honor and distinction. Tragically, he was killed in the line of duty on November 4, 1978. The Black Police Officers Association in conjunction with the San Diego Police Historical Association will host a special event honoring the slain SDPD Officer Archie Buggs at the museum by placing a special plaque commemorating his service to the community and why it is important his legacy carry on to the newer generation. The event will be Wednesday, February 25 from 5 p.m. – 7 p.m. at the San Diego Police Museum 4710 College Avenue, San Diego, CA.

In the gallery this week, photos L to R: First, staff from the Fourth District Council office participated in Words A!ive's "Share Your Love of Reading" program. Staff read to Ms. Haller's kindergarten class at Webster Elementary School in our district. Next, Councilmember Myrtle Cole joined San Diego Workforce Partnership's One Year Anniversary Event for the Bank of America Merrill Lynch Career Center at the New Central Library. The career center is similar to the 11 other career centers throughout the County of San Diego and will provide a myriad of services to job seekers. Lastly, Councilmember Cole's staff provided a Special Commendation at the Lunar New Year Tet Fest commemorating the Fall of Saigon.

Getting Things Done | One of Councilmember Cole's first City Council actions was to support the community in not allowing development on the standpipe/water tower. A project is now underway to deconstruct the standpipe/water tower in the North Encanto/Rosemont community. "I'm happy that the water tower is coming down and the Councilmember did what she promised," wrote Lee Chiles, a resident on Klauber Street.
