

OFFICE OF
COUNCIL PRESIDENT PRO TEM ANTHONY YOUNG
DISTRICT FOUR
NOVEMBER 21, 2007 WEEKLY UPDATE

Have a Safe and Blessed Thanksgiving Holiday!

CITY COUNCIL ACTIONS:

On Monday, November 19, 2007 the San Diego City Council held a special evening meeting at the Mission Valley Church of the Nazarene to discuss and take actions related to the proliferation of mini-dorms in various communities.

On Tuesday, November 20, 2007 the San Diego City Council unanimously approved recommendations to appoint Dr. Shirley Weber and Alden Salcedo of the 4th District to the City of San Diego's Citizens Equal Opportunity Commission. They joined (eight) other appointees in agreeing to volunteer their time and efforts to monitor and/or evaluate the Equal Opportunity Program of the City and advise the Mayor, City Council, Civil Service Commission and other appropriate agencies of City government. I commend and thank them for their service to the citizens of San Diego.

On Tuesday, November 20, 2007 the San Diego City Council approved grant funding for faith-based “6 to 6” school programs in the amount of $284,385. The 4th District’s St. Rita’s School is one of the six faith-based schools receiving funding. All “6 to 6” schools throughout the city are funded and operated through the San Diego Unified School District and the City Council has urged the school district to also apply for grant funding.

On Tuesday, November 20, 2007 the San Diego City Council unanimously adopted my Resolution to honor Julian Bond, Chairman of the NAACP and civil rights leader. Chairman Bond was in San Diego as the keynote speaker at UCSD’s three day celebration titled, “Reconsidering Little Rock: 50 Years After the Start of School Integration.” The integration of Central High School in Little Rock Arkansas in 1957 was a defining moment in the history of the civil rights movement. Over 1,000 military soldiers were used to escort (nine) African American students to school. The nation watched in shock and astonishment at what it required for a small group of students to go to school in essentially their own neighborhood. It changed the course of education in this country forever. UCSD is to be commended and congratulated for recognizing this historical event and comparing and contrasting where we are today.

The San Diego City Council will be in recess next week. Our next meeting will be December 3, 2007. Have a Happy and safe Thanksgiving. I wish you and your family joy and goodwill.
