DISTRICT 6 DISPATCH

BUDGET SIGNING

After City Council's unanimous approval, Mayor Faulconer's One San Diego budget was signed into law, expanding neighborhood services and creating opportunities for all San Diego residents. The 2016 budget was signed on a freshly repaired street in Mira Mesa.

NEXTDOOR IS HERE!

On June 3, I joined Mayor Faulconer and the San Diego Police Department to formally announce our presence on NextDoor.com. CD6 is the first council district to have a page: nextdoor.com/pages/san-diego-council-district-6/

NEIGHBORHOODS FIRST COALITION

More than eighty District 6 residents participated in the Neighborhoods First Coalition's inaugural Forum and 2015 Strategic Plan Update. www.neighborhoodsfirstcoalition.org

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Neighborhood Watch programs are one of the most effective crime prevention programs in the nation. This week, we unveiled 96 new signs for Clairemont's Neighborhood Watch programs. www.clairemontonline.com

RED SHOE DAY

On June 25, my staff and I participated in Red Shoe Day at the intersection of Mira Mesa Boulevard & Westview Parkway for Ronald McDonald House Charities of San Diego.

Since 1980, Ronald McDonald House Charities of San Diego has provided a "home away from home" to families pursuing essential pediatric treatments at San Diego hospitals. www.rmhcsd.org/redshoeday

THANK YOU for all your donations, waves and smiles!

SAN DIEGO'S 99TH BREWERY

On June 20, Kilowatt Brewing unveiled its classic car mascot, a uniquely painted 1962 Morris Minor. I attended the unveiling and recognized Kilowatt Brewing as San Diego's 99th brewery.

Kilowatt Brewing produces uniquely styled, hand-crafted beer and is located in the Kearny Mesa neighborhood.

Creative and interactive lighting permeates throughout the brewery and taproom featuring rotating artwork created by local artists. http://kilowatt.beer/
