

CITY OF SAN DIEGO

F. M. LOCKWOOD
CITY MANAGER

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

June 30, 1934

THE HONORABLE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA

GENTLEMEN:

In accordance with the suggestion of THE SAN DIEGANS, the Park Commission passed the following resolution, which I have approved, and pass to you for your recommendation:

"WHEREAS a Resolution adopted by the Board of Directors of THE SAN DIEGANS recommends to the Commission that the excellent services being rendered the City of San Diego by Mr. John G. Morley, Park Director, in building up a wonderful park system, could receive due recognition by naming the recreation area in the northeast corner of Balboa Park "MORLEY FIELD", Now, therefore,

"BE IT RESOLVED that the recreation area in Balboa Park along Upas Street from Alabama to Arnold Streets be, and it is hereby officially named "MORLEY FIELD"."

Respectfully yours,

F. M. Lockwood
