Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

Section 1st. That the office of City Interpreter and Translator be and is hereby created.

Section 2nd. It shall be the duty of the said officer, faithfully and truly, to act as Interpreter and Translator, in all cases, where his services may be required on behalf of individuals, or of this Council, or of any of the Courts of the City or County.

Section 3rd. For such services he shall be entitled to receive as Interpreter, Ten Dollars per day, or the same amount for any portion of a day more than one half a day, and Five Dollars for half a day or any portion of a day less than half a day; and he shall be entitled to receive as Translator Two Dollars for each and every hundred words so translated and transcribed, and also for the final folio, when less than a hundred words.

Section 4th. In cases between individuals he may refuse to act unless the fees above prescribed be first profered (sic) to him; and in cases before the Common Council, the individual requiring his services shall pay said fees.

Section 5th. In all civil or criminal cases before the Courts, his fees shall be put into the bill of costs, and the person or persons against whom the suit shall be decided, shall be liable for said fees; but in criminal cases where the sentence is imprisonment, or such takes place in default of the fine or damages, then said fees shall be paid by the City of County as the case may be.

Section 6th. No person other than the person holding the office of City Interpreter or Translator shall be entitled to exercise the functions of said office, and his Interpretation and Translation alone shall be considered legal and taken in evidence.

ORDINANCE NO. 37

[Adopted August 24th, 1850.]

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

That lot No. 1 of block No. 88, as indicated upon the plat of city lots of San Diego as drawn by Lieut. Cave J. Coats of the United States Army, and filed in the office of the Clerk of the Common Council, is hereby granted in perpetuity to J. Chris Holbein, Jose A. Aguirre, Juan Bandini and Pedro Jose de Pedrorena, a committee on the part of the Roman Catholic citizens of this place, and their lawful and authorized successors, on the following express condition: That they, the said Holbein, Aguirre, Bandini and Pedrorena shall, in conjunction with their fellow-citizens of the same persuasion, cause to be erected upon said lot a building suitable for their use as a Roman Catholic Church.

Sec. 2. The said lot above described is hereby conveyed for the before mentioned purpose, and for no other, and if the above named persons and their lawful successors shall fail to erect and complete said church within a reasonable period, or at any future time shall cease to use said lot for the purpose indicated, then and in that case the grant shall cease, determine and become absolutely null and void, and the ownership of the lot shall again revert to the city.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 37 of the City of San Diego, California, adopted August 24th, 1850, as found on pages 52 and 53 of Book "A" record of the City of San Diego.

NOTE: The original copy of the following Ordinance No. 39 was not in the files at the time of filming. As recorded in the Minutes, this Ordinance "on being motioned and seconded was passed" at the meeting of the Common Council of August 31, 1850.

The Minutes of the meeting of September 16, 1850 state that "Ordinance Numbers 35, 38 and 39 had not been returned by the Mayor within the ten days allowed by law. Being motioned and seconded it was therefore resolved that in accordance with the provisions of the Charter the above mentioned Ordinances are Laws."

Ordinance No. 39

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

Section 1. The boundary line of the City of San Diego shall commence at a point one-half mile below the Playa, more or less, where a ravine comes down from the hill of the Point de Loma; from thence it shall run due west one-half a mile; from thence at a distance of half a mile from the shore of the Bay, parallel with shore, toward San Diego Old Town till it strikes the flat land of the valley of the San Diego river.

Section 2. On the other side of the Bay the line shall commence half a mile below the line of New San Diego and run from thence at right angles with the shore at that place one-half a mile back from the high water mark of the Bay; thence towards San Diego in a line at a distance of half a mile from the shore and parallel with it until it touches the line of Coutts' survey.

Section 3. The remainder of the two miles of the city limits shall, after including Coutts' survey, be laid out as compactly as possible.

(Passed into an Ordinance by the Common Council of the City of San Diego on August 31, 1850.)

(Approved September 16, 1850.)

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 39 of the City of San Diego, California, adopted September 16, 1850.

ORDINANCE NO. 41.

[Adopted August 31st, 1850.]

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

Section 1. That all the lots and lands to be disposed of shall be exposed for sale at once, but from time to time at reasonable intervals in order to give the inhabitants an opportunity of informing themselves about the several locations and of arranging money matters in time.

Sec. 2. Previous to the granting of any lots a sufficient length of time shall be given to enable all that are willing to apply.

Sec. 3. Said time shall be distinctly specified and published in both languages here, and in English at the Beach and at New San Diego; together with the rules and conditions established for a disinterested granting of said lots and lands.

Sec. 4. The rules to be the following:

First—For lots already surveyed and defined on the several maps. The applicants are to state distinctly in their petition the number of the block and lot or lots with the place for which the grant is to be made.

Second—For lots and lands not yet surveyed or defined on the maps of the city. The applicants to state in their petition the situation of the lot or lots of land to be granted with a good and unmistakable description of the spot the lot will probably occupy.

Third—The applications to be handed over to the Clerk of the Common Council as early as possible, who shall enter the names of the applicants with the day and hour their petitions have been received, in a book to be provided for that purpose, and endorse the same on the petition so presented, and give to the applicant a certificate stating when the application was made and specifying the lot or land so applied for.

Fourth—Said Clerk shall keep a current number for the applications made commencing by the first with No. 1 and so on with all the subsequent applications, which number he shall note on the application in the certificate and in his book.

Fifth—This order shall decide whenever conflicting applications for the same lot or spot of land shall occur in favor of the applicant prior in time.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 41 of the City of San Diego, California, adopted August 31st, 1850, as found on pages 63 and 64 of Book "A" record of the City of San Diego.

An Ordinance

relative to the Land Commissioner and Clerk of Common Council.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

Section 1st. That the Commissioner and Comptroller of the City Lands, together with the Clerk of the Common Council, shall take the oath of office, and give bonds with Sureties, the former in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, and the latter in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars; said bonds and sureties to be approved by the Mayor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office.

Section 2nd. Whenever it shall become evident, that said commissioner tenders any deed or bond of deed to the Mayor and Common Council for approbation and subscription, drawn by himself, or any other person, void of the stipulated conditions of the Ordinance No. or otherwise erroneous, and unlawful, and it can be proved, that this act has been done by him in prejudice of other competition or of the commonwealth, with intended fraud or by unjustifiable negligence, he shall be liable to a fine of from fifty to two hundred dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury, and recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Section 3rd. The said Commissioner shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for in the second section, for any collusion with interested persons, or with the City Treasurer, or Clerk of the Common Council, or for any other wilful misdemeanor or any neglect of his duties as Commissioner or Comptroller.

Section 4th. If it shall become evident, that the Clerk of the Common Council, has fraudulently or by unjustifiable negligence changed the order of applications made, which are to be entered in his book in the presence of the applicants, or has substituted any other Block or Lot, in place of those applied for, or has given a certificate to a person or persons not entitled to it, or a false one, he shall be liable to a fine of from fifty to one hundred dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury, and recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Section 5th. Besides the above fines, both the above mentioned officers shall be liable to be indicted for perjury (sic), if the case should prove a premeditated and wilful act of their own doings; but in all cases, even in that of culpable neglect, the right of indemnity to the party aggrieved shall remain in full force.

Section 6th. Both the officers above mentioned shall incur a penalty to the double amount of any excess of fees, which they may charge, contrary to Ordinance No , recoverable by the injured party, and a further penalty of fifty dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury; and they shall upon entering upon the performance of their respective duties, keep in a proper place, in their office, for public inspection, the tariff of their fees, under a like penalty of fifty dollars.

Section 1st That the Commissioner and Comptroller of the City Lands, together with the Clerk of the Common Council, shall take the oath of office, and give bonds with sureties, the former in the sum of One Thousand Dollars, and the latter in the sum of Five Hundred Dollars, said bonds and sureties to be approved by the Mayor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office.

Section 2nd Whenever it shall become evident, that said Commissioner tenders any deed or bond of deed to the Mayor and Common Council for approbation and subscription, drawn by himself, or any other person, void of the stipulated conditions of the Ordinance No. or otherwise erroneous, and unlawful, and it can be proved, that this act has been done by him in prejudice of other competitors of the common wealth, with intended fraud or by unjustifiable negligence, he shall be liable to a fine of from fifty to two hundred dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury, and recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Section 3rd The said Commissioner shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for in the second section, for any collusion with interested persons, or with the City Treasurer, or Clerk of the Common Council, or for any other wilful mis demeanour or any neglect of his duties as Commissioner or Comptroller.

Section 4th If it shall become evident, that the Clerk of the Common Council, has fraudulently, or by unjustifiable negligence changed the order of applications made, which are to be entered on his book in the presence of the applicants, or has substituted any other Block or Lot, in place of those applied for, or has given a certificate to a person or persons not entitled to it, or a false one, he shall be liable to a fine of from fifty to one hundred dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury, and recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Section 5th Besides the above fines, both the above mentioned officers shall be liable to be indicted for perjury, if the case should prove a premeditated and wilful act of their own doing; but in all cases, even in that of culpable neglect, the right of indemnity to the party aggrieved shall remain in full force.

Section 6th Both the officers above mentioned shall incur a penalty to the double amount of any excess of fees, which they may charge, contrary to Ordinance No. , recoverable by the injured party, and a further penalty of fifty dollars, to be paid into the City Treasury; and they shall upon entering upon the performance of their respective duties, keep in a proper place, in their office, for public inspection, the tariff of their fees, under a like penalty of fifty dollars.

ORDINANCE NO. 42.

[Adopted August 31st, 1850.]

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of the City of San Diego.

Section 1. That the Commissioner and Comptroller of city lands, together with the Clerk of the Common Council, shall take the oath of office and give bonds with sureties, the former in the sum of one thousand and the latter in the sum of five thousand dollars, to be approved by the Mayor, and conditioned for the faithful performance of the duties of their office.

Sec. 2. Whenever it shall become evident that said Commissioner tenders any deed to the Mayor and Common Council, or bond of deed, for approbation and subscription, drawn by himself or any other person, void of the stipulated conditions of Ordinance No. —, or otherwise erroneous and unlawful, and it can be proved that the act has been done by him in prejudice of other competitors of the commonwealth with intended fraud or by unjustifiable negligence, he shall be liable to a fine of from $50 to $200, to be paid into the City Treasury and recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Sec. 3. The said Commissioner shall be subject to the same penalties as provided for in the second section for any collusion with interested persons, with the City Treasurer or Clerk of the Common Council, or for any other wilful misdemeanor or neglect of his duties as Commissioner and Controller.

Sec. 4. If it shall become evident that the Clerk of the Common Council has fraudulently or by unjustifiable negligence changed the order of the applications made, which are to be entered in his book in the presence of the applicant, or has substituted any other block or lot in place of those applied for, or has given a certificate to any person or persons not entitled to it, or a false one, he shall be liable to a fine of from $50 to $100, to be paid into the City Treasury and be recoverable on his bond before any Justice of the Peace.

Sec. 5. Besides said fines both the above mentioned officers shall be liable to be indicted for perjury if the case should prove to be a premeditated and wilful act out of their own doings, but in all cases, even in that of culpable neglect, the right of indemnity to the party aggrieved shall remain in full force.

Sec. 6. Both the officers above mentioned shall incur a penalty to double the amount of any excess of fees which they may charge contrary to ordinance No. —, recoverable by the injured party, and a further penalty of $50, to be paid into the City Treasury, and they shall, upon entering upon the performance of their respective duties, keep in a proper place in their office for public inspection the tariff of their fees under a like penalty of $50.

I hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a full, true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 42 of the City of San Diego, California, adopted August 31st, 1850, as found on pages 64, 65 and 66 of Book "A" record of the City of San Diego.
