

Moving out? Redecorating? Organizing your closet?

Donate those unwanted items that are still in good condition!

After all, one person's trash is another person's treasure.

Cleaning your closet? Donate old clothes and shoes.

Remodeling your kitchen?

Donate old appliances that are still in working condition.

Upgrading household electronics?

Donate older models that are still in working condition.

Changing furniture or bedding?

Donate the gently-used set you are replacing.

Looking for some new reading material?

Donate the books that you no longer read.

Cleaning out your cupboards and cabinets?

Donate open cleaning supplies or non-perishable foods to a local homeless shelter.

There are many charitable organizations that would gladly take your gently used items. Look in the Yellow Pages, under "Thrift Shops" to find an organization near you. Call first to find out what types of donations they accept and if they will pick up donations from your home.
