Special Events

Department Description

The Office of Special Events is responsible for the overall management of events that take place on public property. It supports the significant role that events play in the development of San Diego's economic prosperity and enhancement of civic pride.

Representatives from the Office of Special Events work collaboratively with special event, business, visitor industries, and residential leadership throughout the community to facilitate events that provide unique and memorable experiences for residents and visitors while ensuring the public's safety and reducing the risk to the City of San Diego.

The Office of Special Events provides crucial leadership to the citywide Special Events Management Team. This team is comprised of more than sixty representatives from city, county, State, and federal governmental agencies involved in the recruiting, planning, permitting review, and on-site management of special events.

The Office of Special Events also works with the tourism industry to coordinate the development of bid proposals to bring major events and conventions to San Diego. It also serves as a liaison to these events once they have been secured.

The Department's mission is:
To enhance the vitality, quality, and economic prosperity of San Diego through the support of special events

Goals and Objectives

The following goals and objectives represent the action plan for the Department:
Goal 1: Provide leadership and coordination for the management of special events in San Diego
The Department will move toward accomplishing this goal by focusing on the following objectives:

Special Events

- Ensure a coordinated approach to the planning and on-site management of special events
- Manage internal reviewing authority procedures for the review of special event permit applications

Goal 2: Establish safe and enjoyable venues to support special events in San Diego

The Department will move toward accomplishing this goal by focusing on the following objectives:

- Minimize the City of San Diego's exposure to risk as it relates to special events
- Establish and support the implementation of best practices

Goal 3: Promote and enhance the economic strength of San Diego

The Department will move toward accomplishing this goal by focusing on the following objectives:

- Participate in regional business development and visitor industry initiatives
- Maintain San Diego’s national and international reputation as an industry leader in special event management

Goal 4: Utilize information technology (IT) solutions to support internal and external customers

The Department will move toward accomplishing this goal by focusing on the following objectives:

- Support internal customers through the development of technology that enables multi-disciplinary and multi-agency online interaction for the review and issuance of special event permits
- Develop an online special event permit application that supports external customer needs and interfaces with the permit application review process

Service Efforts and Accomplishments

In Fiscal Year 2011, the Office of Special Events provided management services for several national and international events that took place in San Diego including the Farmer's Insurance Open, Rock 'n' Roll Marathon, Comic-Con International, Surf Cup, and the Poinsettia and Holiday Bowls. In addition, the Office of Special Events provided permit, technical support, and promotional services for more than 1,700 community and major civic events attended by approximately 9 million people.

The Office of Special Events oversees the fundraising and management of Balboa Park December Nights, the largest free-of-charge festival in San Diego. An average of 300,000 people attend San Diego's favorite kick-off to the holiday season which will be one of the signature events featured in the 100th anniversary celebration of Balboa Park in 2015.

The Office of Special Events works collaboratively with the visitor industry organizations such as the San Diego Tourism Marketing District, San Diego Convention and Visitors Bureau, San Diego Convention Center Corporation, and San Diego Sports Commission to support events of national and international stature that each year bring hundreds of millions of dollars in economic impact along with extensive worldwide media exposure to the San Diego region.

The City of San Diego continues to serve as an industry leader in the management of special events. The impact of Special Events trends ranging from Homeland Security issues to flash mobs, and extreme sports/stunts has been significant to the special event industry with many agencies and organizations recognizing the potential exposure special events can bring to their municipality. Each year, dozens of municipalities, agencies, and organizations have sought best practice materials and information from the Office of Special Events to use as benchmarks in the establishment of their internal policies and operating procedures. The City of San Diego's reputation as a leader in event management complements the economic development and visitor industry initiatives to bring major national and international events and conventions to San Diego that benefit the regional economy.
