

Commissioner	Project Information
Joyce Abrams/District 1	Safe Passage volunteer at Montgomery Middle School; member of the Safe School Zone AD Hoc
Gary Lynn/District 2	Rise UP Industries Board member- Several of their founders have been involved with Kairos Prison Ministry at RJ Donovan for a number of years. After reading Father Greg Boyle's book Tattoos on the Heart, and hearing Father Boyle speak to the inmates at RJ Donovan, they decided to research the need for a San Diego based nonprofit modeled after Father Boyle's Homeboy Industries. Initial research indicated a definite need. Rise Up Industries is the resultant public benefit nonprofit that is focused on Gang Prevention, Gang Intervention and Post Detention Reentry.
Pastor Archie Robinson	involved in C.A.S.T. - Community Assistance Support Team and the San Diego Compassion Project
Don Johnson	Volunteer at Patrick Henry for football
Bishop Cornelius Bowser	involved in C.A.S.T. - Community Assistance Support Team and the San Diego Compassion Project
Vinh Tran	works with youth in the Mira Mesa area and mentors young people there.
Dana Brown	Youth Voice advisor/facilitator in Mid City; coordinating working with Bayside Community Leadership Academy on Restorative Justice practices and Gang Violence; San Diego County Community Manager for ACEs Connection - online Trauma Informed group; San Diego Compassion Project.
Eduardo Corona	Leader at Reality Changers:
Rosa Ana Lozada	Harmonium Executive Director; has staff involved in the San Diego Compassion Project; recently received LISC grant to work with Youth Voice in a leadership academy
Dr. Rodney Hood	chair of the Health Disparities Ad Hoc; has a federal grant to work with volunteers to support seniors who have health issues.
Carol Williams	United Way
Danny Villereal	Community leader who works with ex-gang members gets work for them- works with GoStaff and other local companies willing
Chief Zimmerman	Big supporter of StarPal; linkages have been made with Starpal to expand services to communities outside of MidCity.
Sheriff Gore	supports the community Gun Buy Back program

Superintendent Cindy Marten	Her counseling staff are connected with San Diego Compassion Project; Chief Littlejohn co-chairs the Safe School Zone Ad Hoc.
DA Bonnie Dumanis	the County District Attorney's office embarked on a three-school Youth Advisory Board mentoring project involving AmeriCorps volunteers. There will be Youth Advisory Boards at Mira Mesa High School, Lincoln High School and Scripps Ranch High School to serve youth in these schools
Probation Chief Jenkins	The County of San Diego Probation Department has embarked on an initiative to engage youth involved in 'low level delinquent conduct, including status offenses, from escalating into more serious delinquent activity (gangs, violent offenses, substance abuse). Working with caregivers, educational support personnel and community and justice partners to support youth and family, probation staff utilize an intensive case management approach and engage resources according to youth and family strengths and needs. Pilot goals include increasing resiliency (building the youth's assets), utilizing evidence-based, best and promising practices toward recidivism reduction and ultimately shortening the youth's exposure to and engagement in the delinquency system.
Executive Director Peter Callstrom	CONNECT2Careers, a highly competitive summer employment program that addresses San Diego's ongoing skills gap by providing meaningful work experiences that prepare young adults ages 16-21 for in-demand jobs. By aligning the career aspirations and educational backgrounds of young adults with businesses committed to developing our emerging workforce, CONNECT2Careers
Executive Director Gary Gallegos	SANDAG does incredible research for substantiating and sustaining work in the community. Their December 2013 report Gang Involvement Among San Diego County Arrestees in 2012 was one of the research documents that informed the Strategic Action Plan.