6. Action Agenda:

Item A-

San Diego County Probation has developed a continuum of services for youth within their custody. Chief Jenkins will brief the Commission on this effort. (Goal 2: Research community and statewide activities to share with Commission members and Mayor/Council)

Recommended Action: Establish an Ad Hoc Committee to work with the San Diego County Juvenile Probation Department to develop a targeted communication plan that informs City Departments, City Schools, etc. of Juvenile Probation's continuum of services.

Item B

San Francisco and San Jose have established a Hospital-Community response to gang violence. Prior to the Wraparound Project at the San Francisco General Hospital, 35% of victims of gang violence returned to the hospital with additional injuries, now the figure is 4%. In one study published this year, 90% of participants provided positive meaningful responses to the intervention ($P < 0.001$) Commissioners Pastor Bowser, Dr. Hood and Pastor Robinson are very interested in studying this project. The Attached manual details what San Jose has proposed and will be the basis for an Ad Hoc review of the initiative. (Goal 1. Develop a strategic collaborative effort between various agencies who work with gang related issues.)

Recommended Action: Establish a Hospital-Community Ad Hoc to further research implementation options and resources.

Item C

The National Council on Crime and Delinquency would like the Commission to be a co-sponsor of their 2014 Conference on Children, Youth, and Families. The NCCD Conference on Children, Youth, and Families (CCYF) will feature workshops and presentations by jurisdictions that have adopted evidence-based practices, conducted
