Family Day
in the Park

Día de la Familia
en el Parque

Family Day in the Park is a community effort to promote safe and healthy families. The anticipated attendance for this FREE event is 3,500. The event will have activities for children ages birth to 12 years of age and provide free resources and information for parents.

The first 50 participants to register will be provided a canopy, one six-foot table and two chairs. Registration is FREE, but participants are required to host a family friendly activity. All activities must be pre-approved by the Commission.

Registration Information:
