

Trauma Informed Care (TIC)

Responding to Community Violence: Impact, Awareness, Empowerment

A Free Symposium Supporting the Community with Resources and an Understanding of Trauma

SYMPOSIUM DETAILS

This unique symposium is designed for all members in our community who are experiencing or supporting others to navigate through the trauma associated with community violence. This experiential session is appropriate for teens, families, church volunteers, counselors, educators and community members who choose to respond to community violence by coming together to use knowledge and connection as a path toward empowerment and well-being.

When: Saturday, October 13, 2012
8:30 AM – 2:00 PM (Lunch provided)

Where: Malcolm X Library @ 5148 Market Street, San Diego, CA 92114

Symposium supported by:

Alliance for Community
Empowerment, San Diego County
Health and Human Services, Jenna
Druck Foundation, Commission on
Gang Prevention and Intervention,
Jonathan Villafuerte, Harmonium,
UC San Diego Health Sciences, The Peace Coalition (Children Without Families), San Ysidro Health Clinic,
Youth Voice

REGISTRATION

Registration to this free symposium is required and limited to 150 attendees. Certificates of Completion will be given to attendees. CEUs will be available.

Register online at:

<http://ticoctober13.eventbrite.com>

Continuing Education:

This training meets the qualifications for 4 hours of continuing education credits for MFTs, LCSWs, and RNs as required by the California Board of Registered Nurses, BRN# 03853 and the California Behavioral Sciences BBS# PCE 446.