

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION

Keith M. Turnham Humanitarian Award

Greetings,

The City of San Diego Human Relations Commission (HRC) is soliciting recommendations for its 8th annual Keith M. Turnham Humanitarian Award. The award is named in honor of a former HRC Commissioner, World War II veteran, prisoner of war, Purple Heart recipient, and community activist Keith M. Turnham.

This award recognizes and honors an individual or group who is a veteran and is involved in ongoing service that increases mutual respect and understanding across our community. They will be honored for both their service to our country and for promoting human and civil rights.

Nomination criteria include:

- Individual or group who is a veteran or family member of a veteran of military service.
- Individual or group who has had a significant impact in the area of public service, social justice, and human rights.
- Individual or group must be residents of or based in the City of San Diego or, the work for which they are being honored has a substantial impact on our community.

We welcome your submissions; please fill out the nomination form to nominate your 2015 Keith M. Turnham Humanitarian Award Recipient.

Please submit your nomination by August 31, 2015. The award will be presented at a ceremony on November 18, 2015 in The City of San Diego Central Library.

We understand the nomination process can be time consuming but we sincerely appreciate all applications. If you have submitted an application in the past and your nominee was not chosen, please do not be discouraged from submitting a nominee this year.

If you have any questions please feel free to call (619) 236-6420 or email humanrelationscomm@sandiego.gov. Thank you for your consideration.
