Regular and special meetings of the member of the corporation acting through a meeting of the Council shall comply with the Brown Act and the meeting requirements of the Council.

The notice shall be given either personally, or by first-class, registered, or certified mail, or by other means of written communication, charges prepaid, and shall be addressed to the Council members and to the Mayor at the address of the member and the Mayor appearing on the books of the corporation or at the address of the City Council and the Mayor appearing on the records of the City, for purposes of notice.

Section 12. Adjournment. Any meeting of the member may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of the majority of the Council members. No meeting may be adjourned for more than forty-five (45) days. When a meeting of the member is adjourned to another time or place, notice shall be given of the adjourned meeting as provided in Article 6, Section 10 of these bylaws, even if the time and place to which the meeting is adjourned are announced at the meeting at which adjournment is taken.

Section 13. Voting. A majority vote means the affirmative vote of five Council members. A two-thirds vote means the affirmative vote of six Council members. Each Council member entitled to vote shall be entitled to cast one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the member. Cumulative voting is prohibited. If a quorum is present, a majority vote of the Council members shall be the act of the member, unless the vote of a greater number is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these bylaws or the Law. In any election of directors of the Board, the candidates receiving the highest number of votes are elected. Each Council member shall have the right to vote for as many nominees as there are vacancies on the Board to be filled by the member.

Section 14. Waiver of Notice or Consent. Notice of any special meeting of the member in accordance with Article 6, Section 10 of these bylaws may be waived by any Council member who at or prior to the time the special meeting convenes delivers to the City Clerk a written waiver of notice. The waiver of notice may be given by e-mail. The written notice of any special meeting of the member may also be dispensed with as to any Council member who is actually present at the special meeting at the time the meeting convenes. No written waiver of notice or consent to the holding of a regular meeting of the member, or an approval of the minutes of any regular meeting of the member shall be permitted.

Section 15. No Action by Unanimous Written Consent. A member action may not be taken by unanimous written consent without a meeting and without prior notice.

Section 16. No Action by Written Ballot Without a Meeting. A member action, including the election of directors of the Board, may not be taken by written ballot without a meeting and without prior notice.

Section 17. Proxies. The member shall not have the right to vote by a written proxy either in person or by authorizing one or more agents.

ARTICLE 7: BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1. Powers. Subject to the provisions and limitations of the Law and any other applicable laws of the State of California, and subject to any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation and these bylaws regarding actions that require approval of the member, the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed, and all corporate powers shall be exercised, by or under the direction of the Board of Directors. The Board may delegate the management of the day-to-day operation of the business of the corporation to a committee composed of Board members, or other person, provided that the activities and affairs of the corporation shall be managed and all corporate powers shall be exercised under the ultimate direction of the Board.

Section 2. Number, Election and Nomination of Directors. The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be nine (9), until changed by amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or these bylaws. If necessary, to ensure that there will be an odd number of directors after these bylaws are adopted, one at-large director position will be eliminated once the term of such director expires. The Mayor shall appoint one director as a representative of the Mayor and the Council shall appoint one director as a representative of the Council. Except as set forth herein, the remaining directors shall be elected by the member. Except for the one director each appointed by the Mayor and the Council, respectively, the member shall adopt nomination and election procedures for the remaining seven (7) directors that comply with section 5520 of the Law. These procedures shall include a method by which the Mayor submits candidates for election to the member for its consideration. The procedures shall allow for a reasonable opportunity for a nominee to communicate to the member the nominee's qualifications and the reasons for the nominee's candidacy. The Council may elect directors to fill a vacant director position, except for the director position that represents the Mayor's office, in the event that the Mayor does not submit any candidates to fill any such vacancies for ratification by the Council within 90 days of the notification of any such vacancy. No corporate funds may be expended to support a nominee for director.

No director may be a member of the Council. At all times a minimum of two directors shall have relevant experience in finance, real estate law, economic development, redevelopment or urban design as such experience is determined by the Board. The provisions of this Section 2 may only be changed by an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation or these bylaws.

Section 3. Election, Designation, and Term of Office of Directors. Directors shall serve for a term of three (3) years. It is the intent of these bylaws to have and maintain the staggered terms of office for the directors and to provide that no more than one third (1/3) of the directors' offices expire each year. The Board shall divide its members into three groups of three directors each consistent with the current terms of the directors as of the date of adoption of these bylaws. Election of the directors for one third (1/3) of the directors' offices shall occur annually by the member at the regular meeting of the member. However, if all of the directors to be elected are not elected at any regular meeting, they may be elected at any special members' meeting held for that purpose.

Each director, including a director elected to fill a vacancy, shall hold office until expiration of the term for which elected and until a successor has been elected and qualified. Directors may not serve more than two (2) consecutive three-year terms.

Section 4. Vacancies. A vacancy on the Board shall exist on the occurrence of the following:

- (a) the death or resignation of any director;
- (b) the declaration by resolution of the Board of a vacancy in the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by a final order of court, convicted of a felony, or found by final order or judgment of any court to have breached a duty under sections 5230-5239 of the Law dealing with standards of conduct for a director, or has missed three (3) consecutive meetings of the Board of Directors or a total of four (4) meetings of the Board during any one calendar year;

- (c) the vote by two-thirds of the Council members at a meeting of the Council to suspend or terminate and remove a director with or without cause upon the direction of the Council, or by the vote of a simple majority of the Council at a meeting of the Council in favor of the recommendation to suspend or terminate and remove a director upon a recommendation of the Mayor to the Council stating that the Mayor believes a director has breached any of the terms and conditions of the Amended and Restated Operating Agreement between the Redevelopment Agency of the City of San Diego and the Southeastern Economic Development Corporation, Inc. ("Agreement") or that the director has breached the provisions of these bylaws;
- (d) an increase in the authorized number of directors; or
- (e) the failure of the member, at any meeting of the member at which directors are to be elected, to elect the number of directors required to be elected at such meeting.

Except as provided in this paragraph, any director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the member and the Board, unless the notice specifies that the resignation is effective at a later time. If the resignation is effective at a future time, a successor may be elected to take office when the resignation becomes effective. Unless the California Attorney General is first notified, no director may resign when the corporation would then be left without a duly elected director in charge of its affairs.

Prior to the removal of any director, the director to be removed shall have been notified in writing in the manner set forth in Article 6, Section 10 that such action would be considered at the meeting at which removal is voted. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before that director's term of office expires.

Section 5. Meetings. The Board shall meet annually for a regular meeting of the Board, but no later than sixty days after a meeting of the member for purposes of organization, election of officers and the transaction of other business, other regular meetings of the Board shall be held at such times as are fixed by the Board or requested by the member.

Special meetings of the Board shall be held upon four days notice by first-class mail, or 48 hours notice delivered personally or by telephone, including a voice messaging system or by electronic transmission by the corporation at such times that are fixed by the Board or requested by the member. The call and notice shall specify the time and place of the special meeting and the business to be transacted at the special meeting. No other business shall be considered at these special meetings of the Board. Provided however, notice of a special meeting of the Board may be waived by any member of the Board who at or prior to the time the special meeting convenes delivers to the City Clerk a written waiver of notice. The waiver of notice may be given by e-mail. All waivers of notice of the special meeting shall be filed with the corporate records or made a part of the minutes of the meetings of the Board. The written notice of any special meeting of the Board may also be dispensed with as to any Board member who is actually present at the special meeting at the time the meeting convenes. Special meetings of the Board shall comply with the Brown Act and the Law.

All regular and special meetings of the Board shall be held with notice and in compliance with the Brown Act. Meetings shall be held at any place designated by resolution of the Board, or, if not designated, at the principal office of the corporation and included in the notice of the meeting in accordance with these bylaws. A meeting may be held at any place provided in the notice in accordance with these bylaws. Any meeting may be held by conference telephone or other communications equipment permitted by the Law, as long as all directors participating in the meeting can communicate with one another and all other requirements of the Law and the Brown Act are satisfied. All such directors shall be deemed to be present in person at such meeting.

Meetings of the Board for any purpose may be called at any time by the chairperson of the Board, the president, the secretary, any two (2) directors, or the member. In addition to the notice required by the Brown Act, notice of the date, time, and place of meetings shall be delivered personally to or communicated to each director, the Council members and the Mayor by telephone, including a voice messaging system which records and communicates messages, facsimile, or electronic mail at least four (4) days before the date of the meeting for any regular meeting of the Board. Notice may be communicated by telegraph, express mail service, first-class mail, or by other means of written communication, charges prepaid. Said notice shall be addressed to the directors, the Council members and the Mayor at their respective addresses as shown upon the records of the corporation or the records of the City, deposited in the mails or given to the express mail company or other carrier at least seven (7) days before the date of the meeting. The notice shall specify the purpose of the meeting.

A director may not waive notice or consent to the holding of a regular meeting of the Board without the notice provided in this Article 7, Section 5 under any circumstances. No transaction at any regular meeting of the Board is valid under any circumstances if, either before or after the meeting, any or all members of the Board, not present in person or by proxy, sign a written waiver of notice, a consent to the holding of the regular meeting, or an approval of the minutes of the regular meeting. All such waivers, consents, and approvals shall be invalid.

Section 6. Action at a Meeting. The presence of a majority of the directors authorized in the bylaws at a meeting of the Board constitutes a quorum for the transaction of business. Every act done or decision made by a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be regarded as the act of the Board, unless a greater number, or the same number after disqualifying one or more directors from voting, is required by the Articles of Incorporation, these bylaws, or the Law. Directors may not vote by proxy. A meeting at which a quorum is initially present, including an adjourned meeting, may continue to transact business notwithstanding the withdrawal of directors, if any action taken is approved by at least a disinterested majority of the required quorum for such meeting, or such greater number as required by the Articles of Incorporation, these bylaws or the Law.

Section 7. Adjourned Meeting and Notice. A majority of the directors present, whether or not a quorum is present, may adjourn any meeting to another time and place. If the meeting is adjourned for more than twenty-four (24) hours, notice of any adjournment to another time or place shall be given to the directors who were not present at the time of the adjournment, the Council members and the Mayor as provided in Article 7, Section 5 of these bylaws. Such notice may be not waived under any circumstances.

Section 8. Participation of City Officials. The Council members or their duly authorized representatives and the Mayor shall be entitled to attend any meetings of the Board or any committee thereof and shall receive notice of such meetings in accordance with Section 5 of this Article 7. However, neither the Council members nor the Mayor shall be entitled to vote on any matter considered by the Board or any committee thereof at any meeting. The Council members and the Mayor shall be entitled to make presentations to the Board and propose recommendations for consideration by the Board and any committees thereof on matters related to the business or operations of the corporation.

Section 9. No Action Without a Meeting. The Board may not take any action by unanimous written consent without a meeting and without prior notice as required by this Article 7 under any circumstances. Any such action by the unanimous written consent of the Board shall be invalid.

Section 10. Fees and Compensation. Directors may not receive any compensation for their services as such, but may receive reasonable reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties, including advances as provided in Article 8, Section 2, as may be fixed or determined by resolution of the Board. Directors may not be compensated for rendering services to this corporation in any capacity other than as a director, unless such compensation is reasonable and approved as provided in Article 8, Section 3 of these bylaws.

ARTICLE 8: STANDARD OF CARE

Section 1. General. A director shall perform the duties of a director, including duties as a member of any committee of the Board on which the director may serve, in good faith, in a manner such director believes to be in the best interest of this corporation and with such care, including reasonable inquiry, as an ordinarily prudent person in a like situation would use under similar circumstances.

In performing the duties of a director, a director shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

- (a) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented;
- (b) Counsel, independent accountants or other persons as to matters which the director believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence; or
- (c) A committee of the Board upon which the director does not serve, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the director believes to merit confidence, so long as the director acts in good faith, after reasonable inquiry when the need therefore is indicated by the circumstances and without knowledge that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

Except as provided in these bylaws, a person who performs the duties of a director in accordance with the above shall have no liability based upon any failure or alleged failure to discharge that person's obligations as a director, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, any actions or omissions which exceed or defeat a public or charitable purpose to which the corporation, or assets held by it, are dedicated.

Section 2. Loans. This corporation shall not make any loan of money or property to, or guarantee the obligation of, any director or officer, unless approved by the California Attorney General; provided, however, that this corporation may advance money to a director or officer of this corporation for expenses reasonably anticipated to be incurred in the performance of the duties of such officer or director so long as such individual would be entitled to be reimbursed for such expenses absent that advance.

Section 3. Compensation of Officers, Directors, Employees and Independent Contractors. No officer or any of the two highest compensated employee's or the two highest compensated independent contractor's of the corporation as such compensation is determined by the books and records of the corporation may receive compensation, directly or indirectly, from the corporation unless such compensation is first determined by the disinterested directors, as defined in the Law, or an authorized committee thereof, to be just and reasonable to the corporation.

The names of the persons who were present for discussions and votes relating to the compensation arrangement, the content of the discussion, including any of the information used to determine the reasonableness of the compensation and a record of any votes taken in connection with the proceedings shall be maintained in the minutes of the corporation.

The determination of reasonableness shall be based upon information about compensation paid by similarly situated organizations for similar services, current compensation surveys compiled by independent firms or actual written offers from similarly situated organizations. Similarly situated organizations may include both taxable and tax exempt organizations.

No officer, employee or independent contractor, shall participate in the discussion and approval of his or her compensation, except that such persons may provide information to the disinterested directors.

Section 4. Board Review of Fairness of Compensation. The Board shall review the fairness of compensation, including benefits paid, in accordance with the requirements of Government Code section 12586(g), or any successor section, of the President and the Chief Financial Officer of the corporation upon the occurrence of the following events, provided, however, the obligation of the Board with respect to the review of the compensation of the President under this Section 4 shall be to conduct a survey of comparable compensation for the President upon the occurrence of the following events and to report the results of such survey to the Mayor, and also to review the fairness of the compensation of the President established by the Mayor and inform the Mayor as to the Board's conclusions regarding such compensation of the President:

- (a) The officer is hired;
- (b) The officer's term of employment is extended or renewed; or
- (c) The officer's compensation is modified, unless such modification occurs pursuant to a general modification of compensation that extends to all employees.

Section 5. Periodic Reviews. The Board shall conduct periodic reviews to ensure the corporation operates in a manner consistent with charitable purposes and does not engage in activities that could jeopardize its tax-exempt status. The periodic reviews shall, at a minimum, include the following subjects:

- (a) Whether compensation arrangements and benefits payable to officers, directors, employees and consultants are reasonable, based on competent survey information, and the result of arm's length bargaining.
- (b) If applicable, whether partnerships and joint ventures conform to the corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit or in an excess benefit transaction.

When conducting the periodic reviews as provided for above, the corporation may, but need not, use outside advisors. If outside experts are used their use shall not relieve the Board of its responsibility for ensuring that periodic reviews are conducted.

Section 6. Restriction on Interested Directors. No person serving on the Board at any time may be an interested person. An interested person is (1) any person currently being compensated by the corporation for services rendered to it within the previous twelve (12) months, whether as a full-time or part-time employee, independent contractor, or otherwise; and (2) any brother, sister, ancestor, descendant, spouse, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, son-in-law, daughter-in-law, mother-in-law, or father-in-law of any such person. However, any violation of the provisions of this section shall not affect the validity or enforceability of any transaction entered into by the corporation.

Section 7. Indemnification. In accordance with the provisions of this Article 8, Section 7, this corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers and employees and including persons formerly occupying any such position, and their heirs, executors, and administrators, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any "proceeding," as that term is used in said section 5238(a) of the Law, and including an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section, if: i) such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation and, ii) in the case of a criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe the conduct of such person was unlawful. "Expenses" shall have the same meaning as in section 5238(a) of the Law.

No indemnification shall be made if any of the conditions set forth in section 5238(c) (1) through (3) or any successor provision of the Law are present. Except as provided in subdivision (d) of section 5238 of the Law, any indemnification shall be made by the corporation only if authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the agent is proper in the circumstances because the director, officer and employee has met the applicable standard of care set forth in subdivision (b) or (c) of section 5238 of the Law, by: (i) a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who are not parties to such proceeding; ii) approval of the member (section 5034 of the Law), or iii) the court in which such proceeding is or was pending upon application made by the corporation or the agent or the attorney or other person rendering services in connection with the defense, whether or not such application by the agent, attorney or other person is opposed by the corporation. Such right of indemnification shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which such persons may be entitled apart from this Article 8, Section 7 of these bylaws, provided, however, any other such indemnification rights shall be consistent with this Article 8, Section 7 of these bylaws.

The corporation shall purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of its directors, officers and employees as determined and approved by the Board and the Board of Directors of the Agency ("Agency Board") against any liability asserted against or incurred by the director, officer and employee in such capacity or arising out of the directors, officers and employees status as such.

ARTICLE 9: CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Section 1. Submission of Corporation Budget. Corporation shall prepare and submit to Agency a Corporation Budget, (as the term "Corporation Budget" is defined in the Agreement). The Corporation Budget shall be in complete and final form, be based on reasonable assumptions in connection with an appropriate due diligence review which has been approved by the Board and contain its best estimate of the revenue and expenditures of the corporation for the next succeeding fiscal year. The Corporation Budget shall be submitted at the time requested by, and be acceptable in form and content to, the Agency and in accordance with the City's administrative budget policies and procedures. Prior to approval by the Board in accordance with this Section 1, the Corporation Budget shall first be prepared, reviewed and approved by management of the Corporation, then submitted to the CFO of the City for review and comment, then submitted to the Board for review and approval and finally submitted to the Agency Board for review and approval. Any line item transfer of funds in the Approved Corporation Budget, as defined in the Agreement, in excess of $10,000 must be presented to and approved by the Board on a monthly basis.

Section 2. Adoption of Purchasing and Contracting Policies and Procedures. The Board shall approve on or before December 31, 2010 comprehensive written purchasing and contracting policies ("Purchasing and Contracting Policies"). Such Purchasing and Contracting Policies shall be updated from time to time as determined by the Board with the goal of ensuring that current best practices in municipal redevelopment and applicable law are included therein. All contracts of the corporation shall be required to be in full compliance with the Agreement, the Board approved Fiscal Policies, the Purchasing and Contracting Policies and all other policies and procedures of the corporation. The Purchasing and Contracting Policies shall first be submitted to the Board for review and approval, then to the CFO of the City for review and comment, and finally submitted to the Agency Board for review and approval. The Purchasing and Contracting Policies shall also establish: i) a specific dollar limitation that prohibits the staff and officers of the Corporation from approving Contracts (as defined in the Agreement) that are above such dollar amount, and ii) a specific dollar limit for all Contracts that requires the prior approval of the Agency Board before entering into any Contracts that are above such dollar amount, and all of such limitations shall be agreed to and approved by the Agency Board and the Board.

Section 3. Adoption of Ethics, Gifts and Record Retention Policies. On or before December 31, 2010, the Board shall adopt comprehensive written policies relating to Ethics, Gifts and Records Retention in accordance with current best practices in municipal redevelopment. Such policies shall be updated annually to ensure the best practices remain current. All of such policies shall be timely posted on the website of the corporation after the adoption thereof.

Section 4. Adoption of Finance, Budget, Reimbursement of Expenses, Expenditure Allowances and Other Fiscal Policies (“Finance and Fiscal Policies”). On or before December 31, 2010 the Board shall adopt comprehensive written Finance and Fiscal Policies in accordance with current best practices in municipal redevelopment. Such Finance and Fiscal Policies shall be updated annually to ensure the best practices remain current. The Finance and Fiscal Policies shall first be submitted to the Board for review and approval, then to the CFO of the City for review and comment and finally submitted to the Agency Board for review and approval. All of such Finance and Fiscal Policies shall be timely posted on the website of the corporation after the adoption thereof.

Section 5 Adoption of Personnel Policies. Effective on or before December 31, 2010 the Board shall have adopted a comprehensive written personnel manual (“Personnel Manual”) in accordance with current best practices in personnel. The Personnel Manual shall be updated annually to ensure the best practices remain current.

Section 6. Conflicts of Interest. Corporation shall timely adopt a Conflict of Interest policy acceptable to the Board and the Agency Board.
