

ANDREW HOLLINGWORTH MBA, CPA

January 13, 2013

Mr. Jeff Kavar
The Office of the Independent Budget Analyst, Attn: Jeff Kavar
202 C Street, MS-3A
San Diego, CA 92101

Dear Mr. Kavar and Gentlemen:

I found myself quite interested by your recent announcement inviting qualified professionals and community residents to apply for membership on the City of San Diego Audit Committee.

Attached are my application materials including the Candidate Summary Application Form, expanded application form, resume, and a short biography of my background.

I am very interested in the appointment. As a 20 year resident of the Point Loma Community and San Diego, I have an extensive accounting and public finance background, and am very interested in San Diego city issues which I have been closely involved with for the past four years. My appointment to the San Diego Airport Audit Committee was supported by Supervisor Greg Cox and the Chairman of the Point Loma Association, and by the Presidents of Point Loma Community Bank and USE Credit Union. I also possess extensive background and experience involving both financial and performance audits and controls, as well as strong knowledge of budgeting and infrastructure issues.

In conclusion, I think my background and experience is a good match for the requirements of the appointment and that I could assist the committee in a number of important areas. I would appreciate the opportunity to speak with you're the Audit Committee concerning my qualifications and look forward to hearing from you so we can arrange an appointment.

Cordially,

Andrew Hollingworth

ANDY HOLLINGWORTH BIOGRAPHY

Andy Hollingworth is a native Southern Californian and has resided in the Point Loma area of San Diego for the past 20 years.

He is a Magna Cum Laude graduate of U.C.L.A. in Economics and received an M.B.A degree at UCLA's Anderson School of Management. He is also a Certified Public Accountant with financial and performance audit experience. After graduation, Andy served as the California Legislature's advisor on K-12 and Community College education and school construction infrastructure within the Office of the Legislative Analyst from 1980 to 1983 where he successfully provided oversight over several multi-billion dollar education and capital programs. He subsequently served from 1983 to 1986 as a policy advisor on banking, bonds, budget and taxation after being assigned to advise the members of the Revenue and Taxation; Public Investments, Finance, and Bonded Indebtedness; Ways & Means; and Finance and Insurance Committees of the California Legislature.

After leaving the Legislature he worked in the PricewaterhouseCoopers public finance consulting group where he co-wrote a study of the effects of Prop 13 on California local government finance which was published by the California Taxpayers Association. He subsequently held several management and Vice President level positions in several private sector financial institutions.

From 2000 to 2006 he served as Director and Chief Financial Officer of the International Visitors Council of San Diego; and as Director and Treasurer of the nonprofit Point Loma Association. Mayor Sanders appointed Andy in 2009 as the audit/accounting representative on the Independent Rates Oversight Committee of the San Diego City Public Utilities Department where he currently serves as Chairman of the Finance Subcommittee. He also currently serves on the Audit Committee of the San Diego Airport Authority.

From 2000 to 2005 he helped successfully reform a deeply troubled $5 billion dollar school construction program where he managed its finances and school construction budgets. During his tenure he helped restore program finances, instituted sound budgetary controls and cost metrics, and instituted strict contractor accountability to provide clean and safe classrooms on time and on budget which significantly improved student learning environments. He also worked to finance port, energy, road, and affordable housing infrastructure projects around the world while with Edison Capital Corporation.

He currently is an executive at the USE Credit Union in San Diego, and is a partner in the firm of Morgan Hollingworth Association Management, which provides association management services to several San Diego and Southern California nonprofit organizations.
