

Bruce G. Brown bio

Bruce G. Brown was appointed to the Park and Recreation Board in 2007. Bruce and his wife Rosemary have lived in the Mira Mesa community for over thirty years. They have one child, Greg (31), who lives in the Costa Mesa area with his wife Pamela and their newly born son Bruce.

Mr. Brown has been very active in his community having served as President of the Mira Mesa Town Council, Chairman of the Mira Mesa Planning Group, President of the Recreation Council and Chairman of the Board of Directors of a social services agency (Harmonium). Bruce has also been very active in youth sports. From 1988 – 1994 he either coached or managed teams in basketball, soccer and baseball working with several hundred kids ranging in age from 8-14. For his volunteer efforts the community of Mira Mesa has named him “Volunteer of the Year” twice.

Bruce has also served the City of San Diego as a member of the Planning Commission (1999 – 2004), a member of the Historical Site Board (1995-1999) and as a member of the City Manager’s Committee on Recycling (1998-1999).

Mr. Brown received his bachelors degree in Urban Studies, from California State University, Northridge and a Masters in Business Administration, from National University.

Bruce is currently retired from a twenty year career in Human Resources. He is also medically retired from the United States Navy.