The Planning Commission Hearing Draft General Plan (Draft General Plan, available at <http://www.sandiego.gov/planning/genplan/draftfinal.shtml>) sets out a long-range vision and comprehensive policy framework for how the City should grow and develop, provide public services, and maintain the qualities that define San Diego over the next 20 to 30 years. The Draft General Plan does not change land use designations or zoning on individual properties, but rather provides the framework and policy direction for future community plan updates, discretionary project review, and implementation programs. The Draft General Plan is comprised of an introductory Strategic Framework chapter and nine elements: Land Use and Community Planning; Mobility; Economic Prosperity; Public Facilities, Services and Safety; Urban Design; Recreation; Historic Preservation; Conservation; and Noise. The update to the Housing Element was adopted by the City Council under a separate cover on December 5, 2006.
