FROM: Sara Osborn, Senior Planner, Planning, Neighborhoods & Economic Development Department
SUBJECT: Release of the 2014 Discussion Draft of the San Ysidro Community Plan

I am pleased to release the Discussion Draft of the San Ysidro Community Plan Update for your review. This Discussion Draft is a work-in-progress and serves as a "preliminary draft" to allow the Community Planning Group and Advisory Committee to provide comment on the overall development of the draft plan update prior to the release of the official public draft.

The public process for the plan update began in July of 2010. Since then there have been over 20 public meetings with the committee and outreach to local schools and other entities. The table below shows the relationship between the 1990 Community Plan Elements and the 2014 Discussion Draft Elements.

Table with 2 columns: 1990 Community Plan Elements and 2014 Community Plan Elements. Rows include Introduction, Plan Summary, Residential, Commercial, Industrial, International Gateway, Commercial (Businesses), International Gateway, Urban Form, Cultural and Historic Resources, Transportation and Circulation, International Gateway, Parks, Recreation and Open Space, Local Coastal Program, Community Facilities and Services, None, and Implementation.

The Discussion Draft contains a few gaps due to technical studies and analysis that has yet to be completed. Particular gaps include discussion text and policies related to traffic, mobility improvements, and air quality which rely on the traffic study. These gaps, along with a complete collection of figures, maps, pictures and appendixes will be filled in and included with the release of the Public Draft in the fall of 2014.

Please review the Discussion Draft. Comments may be provided individually or as a committee recommendation. To maintain the current plan update schedule and release a Public Draft in the fall, please provide comments by September 17th.
