ARREST MADE IN SOUTHCREST HOMICIDE

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives have made an arrest in the July 9 stabbing (and October 24 death) of 22-year-old Tommy Jones.

On July 9, 2006, at approximately 2:15 a.m., two males robbed three males at gunpoint in the 3600 block of Main Street. After the robbery, the victims and some friends searched the neighborhood for the suspects. Charlie Cibrian, one of the robbery victims, located Jones, one of the robbery suspects, in the backyard of a residence in the 3700 block of Acacia Street. During the confrontation that ensued, Cibrian stabbed Jones and fled.

Jones was hospitalized since the stabbing, suffered complications related to the stabbing, and died on October 24, 2006.

Homicide Team I investigated the case and identified Cibrian as the person who stabbed Jones. On November 2, 2006, at approximately 6:15 a.m., detectives arrested Cibrian in the 800 block of West Street. Cibrian was booked into County Jail for one count of murder.
