MISSING SAN YSIDRO MAN SOUGHT

(San Diego) On November 6, 2006 at about 8 a.m., Thomas Miranda, 80, walked away from his home in San Ysidro. Miranda is 6' 200 pounds with gray hair and brown eyes. He is Hispanic and has a medium complexion. His family does not know what he was wearing at the time he left his home.

Miranda lives with his family in the area of Interstate 805 and West San Ysidro Boulevard. He is familiar with public transportation and often takes walks in his neighborhood. He is in good mental and physical health, but suffers from diabetes.

If you have any information regarding the whereabouts of Thomas Miranda, please call the San Diego Police Department at (619) 531-2000.

A photo of Miranda is included in this release.
