The 16th Annual San Diego Regional Law Enforcement Teddy Bear Drive for Rady Children's Hospital is in full swing. Law enforcement agencies throughout San Diego County are collecting stuffed animals that will be delivered to the children at the hospital on Tuesday, December 12th. Our goal is to put a smile on the face of each child that has to have a procedure or is admitted to the hospital throughout the year.

In participation with this event, the San Diego police officers at Western Division will be selling their personal items at a booth at Kobey's Swap Meet on November 18, 2006. The officers have donated all items. The officers will be in rows 'F' and 'G', stalls 23-27. All proceeds will be used to purchase new stuffed animals.

In addition, the Kobey Corporation has declared Saturday, November 18th as Teddy Bear Drive Day and is offering free admission for everyone that brings a new stuffed animal for this event. We are requesting that only new stuffed animals be donated.
