POLICE MAKE ARREST IN LINDA VISTA MURDER

San Diego Police Department Homicide and Gang Unit detectives have arrested one suspect and are seeking a second suspect for the murder of Tien Phung last month in Linda Vista.

On November 26, 2006, Phung (19) was shot in his car after leaving a party in the 6900 block of Eastman Street. He was placed on life support at a local hospital, until he died of his wounds on November 27. During the follow-up investigation, detectives identified Tung Danh (18) and Tam Vo (18) as suspects in Phung's death.

This morning, Homicide and Gang Unit detectives served two search warrants in connection with the case. Tam Vo was arrested at a residence in the 4900 block of Euclid Court in Webster. Also searched was Tung Danh's residence in the 7100 block of Hyatt Street in Linda Vista, but he was not found.

Tam Vo will be booked into County Jail for murder, participation in a criminal street gang, and assault with a deadly weapon. Tung Danh is being sought on the same charges. He is described as an Asian male, 18, 5-9, 160, with black hair and brown eyes. (see photo of Tung Danh below)

Anyone with information as to the whereabouts of Tung Danh is encouraged to call San Diego Police Communications at (619) 531-2000, the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293, or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
