SDPD LOOKING FOR MISSING PERSON WHO IS AT RISK

(San Diego) This morning at about 9:30 a.m., Donald Davis, 83, was last seen in the area of Innovation Drive and Carmel Mountain Drive. He was to wait at the Home Depot shopping center (12185 Carmel Mountain Road) for his wife to pick him up.

She arrived at Home Depot around 10:30 a.m. and could not find Davis. The store, neighboring businesses and the area around Home Depot were searched and he has not been found.

SDPD has multiple patrol units and Retired Senior Volunteers looking for Davis. SDPD has notified the Metropolitan Transit Service.

San Diego Police Department is asking the media and public for help with any information regarding Donald Davis.

He was wearing a blue ball cap, blue shirt and blue pants. Mr. Davis is a white male, 5'9", 187 lbs, gray hair, and blue eyes.
