(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department's Financial Crimes detectives are hoping the public will assist in identifying two unknown white males who have fraudulently purchased more than four thousand dollars worth of merchandise. These two suspects also passed 17 counterfeit checks.

Between July 16 and August 1, 2007, the two suspects made fraudulent purchases in Staples, Golfsmith, Golf Mart, Henry's Market, Longs Drugs and Rite-Aid. They used stolen access cards and a stolen identification card to make the purchases. There are several photos of the suspects on pages 2-3 of this news release.

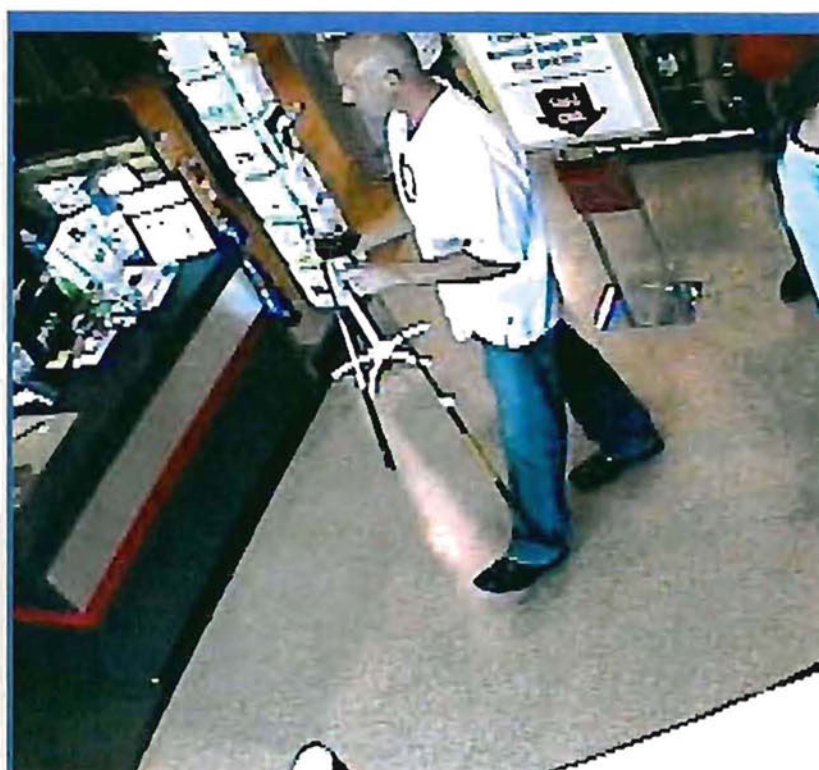

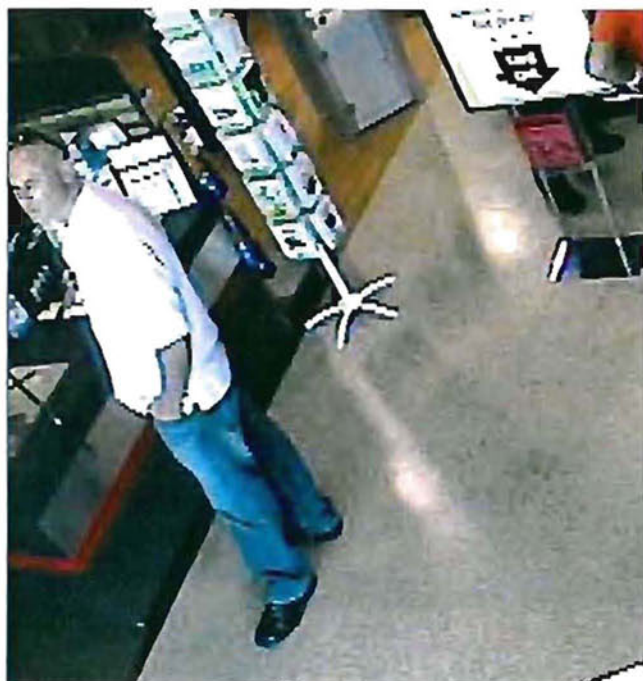

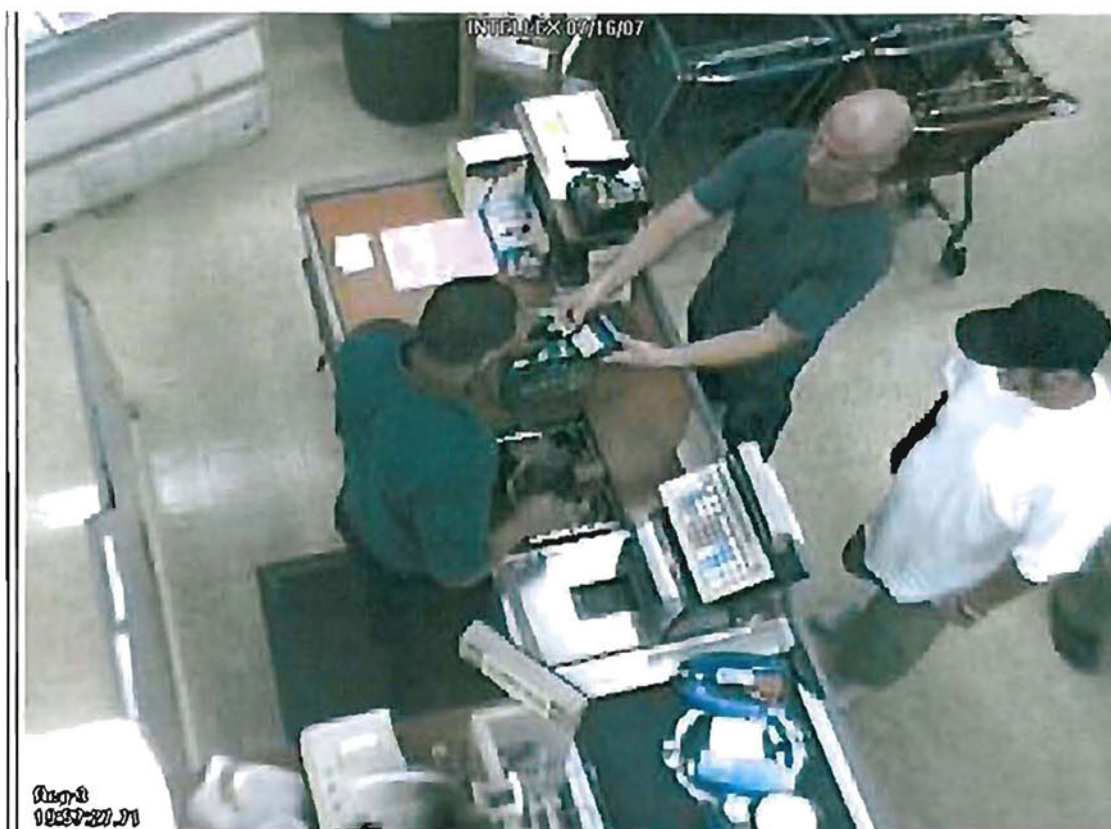

The two suspects are described as follows: #1, white male, 20s – 30s, 5'10" – 6' 160-175 lbs, shaved head, clean shaven, wearing sunglasses on his forehead. The second suspect is also a white male, in his 20s – 30s, 6 feet, 180lbs with short brown hair, long side burns and a moustache, usually wearing a baseball cap.

These two suspects face charges including identity theft, burglary, theft of access card information and false personation.

If you have any information as to the identity of these suspects, please contact the SDPD Financial Crimes Unit at (619) 446-1038. Those who wish to remain anonymous can call the Crime Stoppers toll-free tip line at (888) 580-TIPS. You may be eligible for a reward of up to $1000 for information that leads to an arrest.
