Robbery Suspect Caught on Tape

January 31, 2008

San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with San Diego Police Department Western Division detectives to help identify and apprehend two suspects responsible for robbing a Fashion Valley shopper.

On January 25, 2008, at about 9:25 p.m., a female suspect grabbed a purse from a female shopper as she walked through the Fashion Valley mall parking structure. The victim chased the suspect through the parking structure and into a gold or silver 4-door sedan. In an attempt to recover her purse, the victim jumped into the suspect's vehicle and a struggle ensued. A second suspect, described only as a white male, was also in the vehicle. The male suspect and the female suspect both struggled with the victim in the vehicle. Eventually the male suspect started to drive the vehicle away, and coupled with the struggle, caused the victim to fall out of the vehicle with her purse.
