POLICE SEEK ASSISTANCE IN IDENTIFYING MURDER VICTIM FROM GOLDEN HILL

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the victim of a murder in Golden Hill.

On December 31, 2007, at 7:20 p.m., a homeless male entered an abandoned house on 2900 E Street and saw an injured/unconscious female inside. The male left the residence, borrowed a cell phone and called the police. Officers arrived and found the deceased victim inside the house.

At this time, the identity of the victim has not been determined. She is described as follows:

Hispanic, White, or mixed race female; 15 to 19 years of age; 5'3" tall; 138 pounds; brown eyes; pierced ears; brown, wavy, shoulder length hair; black nylon jacket with "San Diego" in white cursive letters across the front of the jacket, and "SD" on the left shoulder and back of jacket; red, lace, spaghetti-strap halter-top; low waist, button top, light blue jeans with a dark, two inch, fabric waist band; white ankle socks; no tattoos; and a black elastic hair band on left wrist (composite drawing pending).

Anyone with information regarding a missing female teenager matching this description is urged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
