SDPD TO SELL UNCLAIMED PROPERTY

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department has scheduled a sale of unclaimed property for Saturday, October 4, 2008. The auction will be held at the Scottish Rite Event Center in Mission Valley, 1895 Camino Del Rio South, in the Corinthian Room.

There will be a variety of items for sale, including 100 bicycles and our usual assortment of mixed lots. There are several interesting items including a kayak, electronics, and lots more. Also for sale: a large number of power and hand tools (some of them new), two guitars, cameras, stereo items, video game systems, sporting goods, IPODS, video recorders, gift cards, new men's and women's clothing, auto parts, tires and jewelry. Viewing of the items for sale will take place from 9 to 10 a.m. The sale will begin at 10 a.m. Parking is free.

Those interested are encouraged to arrive during the viewing time so they can examine the merchandise for sale. There will be approximately 235 lots of property for sale. Some of the typical items that will be available include:
