TWO MEN INJURED IN REDWOOD VILLAGE/ROLANDO PARK SHOOTING

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the shooting of two men on College Avenue late last night.

On July 23, 2008, at 10:51 p.m., officers were dispatched to a report of a shooting in front of 3659 College Avenue. They arrived to find a 28-year-old male down in the parking lot in front of the apartment complex. The subject had suffered a gunshot wound to the head. Paramedics transported the subject to a local hospital where he is in grave condition and not expected to survive.

Minutes later, a 20-year-old male walked in to a second local hospital seeking medical treatment for a gunshot wound. This subject reported he had been shot by the same group of suspects in the above mentioned incident at the same location. This individual was treated and released.

Detectives have determined both victims were standing in the apartment complex at 3659 College Avenue with a group of friends when an unidentified assailant(s) approached and fired several rounds at the group, striking the two mentioned subjects. The assailant(s) fled after the shooting in an unknown direction. The motive for the shooting is not known. The identities of both victims are being withheld pending family notification.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call the Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-TIPS.
