Police Investigate a Murder in Skyline Hills Area

(San Diego) At 3:10 a.m. this morning, a resident in the 7000 block of La Sena Street called the police to report hearing gunshots. The call was broadcast to SDPD patrol units as information only and not dispatched because there was no additional information. At 7:11 a.m. a resident called the police to report finding the body of a man in a car within the 7000 block of La Sena. When police officers arrived they found the body of a man inside a maroon Nissan Sentra. Witnesses reported seeing two armed men leaving the area of the shooting and a short time later seeing two vehicles leave at a high rate of speed. One suspect is described as a black male and the other as a male (unknown race), wearing a black or dark colored hoodie sweatshirt and black shorts with a red cuff or trim. The vehicles are described as a charcoal gray colored Honda Accord and a white GMC Yukon or similar vehicle.

The identity of the victim will not be released pending notification of next of kin.

Anyone with information on this case is asked to call the SDPD Homicide Unit at (619) 531-2293 or Crimes Stoppers at (858) 580-TIPS.
