INDECENT EXPOSURE SUSPECT ARRESTED

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department Southeastern Division announces the arrest of a suspect for at least one indecent exposure case. A Hispanic male in his 20s was arrested in the 6400 block of Akins Avenue in Encanto at about 2 p.m. today. This male has yet to be identified as he was carrying a false identification card.

The victim, a 17-year-old girl, was walking in the area of 65th Street and Akins Avenue at about 11:30 a.m. when a Hispanic male in a van approached her. The male asked her for directions and exposed himself to the victim. The victim ran home and called police.

The victim provided a detailed description of the suspect and the suspect vehicle, including a partial license plate number. The suspect's vehicle is a light blue 1992 Toyota Previa mini-van. Armed with this information, Southeastern Division officers searched the area and located the suspect and his vehicle.

Detectives are in the process of trying to determine if this is the same individual who committed an attempted abduction that occurred on May 18, 2009 in the 6700 block of Brooklyn Avenue.

If you believe you have been a victim of this suspect, you are asked to call SDPD Southeastern Division at (619) 527-3500.
