POLICE INVESTIGATE DEATHS IN MIRAMAR RANCH NORTH RESIDENCE

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the deaths of a man and a woman inside a Miramar Ranch North residence as a possible murder-suicide.

This evening, at approximately 7:45 p.m., friends of the decedents went to their home (in the 11200 block of Golden Birch Way) when the couple did not show up at a church event. With the assistance of a neighbor, they looked into the windows of the residence and saw the woman's body. Firefighters forced entry into the residence and found two bodies inside. Both the man and the woman had traumatic injuries, and they were pronounced dead at the scene. A handgun was recovered near the male's body.

Positive identification of the decedents is pending.

Detectives are currently processing the residence for evidence and are preparing for the arrival of a pathologist to examine the victims.
