SUSPECT SOUGHT IN SWAN CANYON MURDER

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the murder of Devin Lamarr Johnson.

On December 10, 2009, at about 12:12 p.m., patrol officers responded to reports of a shooting in the 3200 block of Fairmount Avenue, near the intersection of Thorn Avenue. Mid City Division patrol officers arrived and found Devin Johnson suffering from gunshot wounds. He was transported to a trauma hospital, where he died the following day.

The suspect in the shooting has been identified as Samuel Alexander Webster. Webster is twenty six years-old, 5'9" tall and weighs 160 pounds. He has brown hair and brown eyes. He was last seen wearing dark clothing and a black baseball hat. Webster frequents the Mid City and Logan Heights areas of San Diego.

Anyone with information on Webster's whereabouts is encouraged to call the San Diego Police or SD County Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
