Walgreens Robbery Suspect; Surveillance Photo Released

Reward of up to $1,000

Release Date: November 16, 2009

San Diego County Crime Stoppers is joining forces with the San Diego Police Department's Robbery Unit to help identify and apprehend a suspect wanted for robbery.

Detectives said on Thursday, November 12, 2009, at about 5:35 a.m., a suspect entered the Walgreen's at 3222 University. The suspect walked to the pharmacy in the back of the store and bought a bottle of cough medicine. He left the pharmacy area but remained in the store for about five minutes. He then returned to the pharmacy counter and presented a demand note instructing the pharmacist to give him Oxycontin pills. The suspect appeared to reach toward his waistband as if he was going to pull out a gun. The suspect was last seen leaving the Walgreens and walking eastbound towards the parking lot.

The suspect is described as White or Hispanic adult male, mid 40s, about 5'10" tall with a heavy build and a "salt and pepper" goatee/beard. He was wearing a gray baseball cap with a black logo on the right side, a black "Member's Only" type jacket with a red "TRD" on the chest, blue jean pants and white/black sneakers.
