DETECTIVES INVESTIGATE POINT LOMA HEIGHTS SEXUAL ASSAULT

(San Diego) San Diego Police Sex Crimes Unit detectives are investigating the assault of a fifty-one year-old woman that occurred at 2100 San Clemente Street in the Point Loma Heights neighborhood on Thursday, May 13, 2010.

At about 4:00 a.m. the victim was asleep in her home when she was confronted by the suspect. He broke into her residence through an unlocked, rear bedroom window. The victim was asleep on her couch in the living room when she was awakened and sexually assaulted. The suspect took several items of the victim's property and fled.

The suspect is described as a White male, 20 to 30 years old, 5' 7", 140 pounds, with a shaved head and goatee. The suspect was wearing a black "hoodie", gloves and smelled like fuel. The victim called a relative, told them about the assault and they called the Police Department to report the crime. The Police Department's Crime Lab, including forensic specialists, along with Sex Crimes Unit detectives, are currently processing the scene. If a composite of the suspect is developed it will be released to the media.

The victim was treated at the scene by paramedics and released. Anyone with information concerning this case is asked to contact the San Diego Police Department's Sex Crimes Unit at (619) 531-2210 or San Diego County Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.

Lieutenant O'Hanlon will be available for interviews in front of SDPD headquarters at 11:30 a.m. this morning.
