At its annual luncheon, San Diego County Crime Stoppers will hear from Carlos Mitchem, the Assistant Regional Director for North and Central America with the DEA about the work of the agency in Mexico. Around 400 local law enforcement leaders, elected officials, business people, and community members will be at the event today.

Crime Stoppers will profile the 100th homicide case solved with help from a Crime Stoppers tip—the case of Marcella Peraza, who was killed last March. Crime Stoppers will also highlight the unsolved case of Maribel Arteaga. Families of both women will be at the event.
