POLICE INVESTIGATE STABBING DEATH IN VALENCIA PARK

San Diego Police Homicide Unit detectives are investigating a stabbing which left a man dead in the Valencia Park area.

This afternoon, at 4:12 p.m., officers were dispatched to a report of a violent disturbance inside a house in the 5100 block of a La Paz Drive. On arrival, officers found a stabbing victim on the living room floor. The victim, a 69-year old male, was transported to a local hospital, but died at 5:24 p.m.

The preliminary investigation has revealed that both the victim and suspect reside at the residence. The victim and suspect had an argument, which led to a physical confrontation. During the altercation, the suspect stabbed the victim.

The victim has been identified, but his name will not be released at this time pending family notification. At this time, detectives are conducting interviews with witnesses and processing the scene for evidence. The suspect, a 57 year-old female, has been arrested and is currently being interviewed by detectives.
