DETECTIVES REQUEST THE PUBLIC'S ASSISTANCE IN LOCATING A MISSING JUVENILE

(San Diego) San Diego Police Department detectives from the Southeastern Division Juvenile Services Unit are requesting the public's assistance in locating Jewele Hiday.

On Sunday, August 8, 2010, at approximately 7:00 a.m., Elizabeth Hiday discovered her twelve year old daughter, Jewele Hiday, was missing from their home. Jewele (pronounced "Julie") was last seen at her Skyline residence at approximately 6:00 a.m. that morning by her older sister.

San Diego Police have been able to establish that Jewele left home after a recent conflict with her mother. Investigators were able to establish that Jewele spent Sunday night in Imperial Beach with a friend. The interview with the friend, who is a female minor, revealed Jewele had taken additional clothing from home. On Thursday, August 12, 2010, at 10:53 a.m. Jewele called her cousin and told her that she was alright, but she would not reveal where she was.

While Jewele is considered to be a runaway, the San Diego Police Department requests the public's assistance in locating her. The Department continues to devoted considerable resources to ensuring her safe return.

Jewele is described as a mixed race (Hispanic/Filipino) female, twelve years of age, 5'1", weighing approximately 115 pounds. She has long black curly hair, however she straightens her bangs. She has brown eyes and a light complexion. Jewele was last seen wearing blue denim jeans and a Hollister brand hooded sweatshirt. Recent photographs of Jewele Hiday are attached to this release.

Anyone with information in Jewele's whereabouts is asked to call the San Diego Police Department at (619) 531-2000.
