FUGITIVE SEX OFFENDER ROUND-UP

Tips from the Public Sought on 10 Fugitive Sex Offenders

October 13, 2010

During the week of October 11-15, San Diego County Crime Stoppers will partner with local, state, and federal agencies to profile more than 50 wanted sex offenders who are thought to be in the San Diego County area. The goal of the Fugitive Sex Offender Round-Up is to locate, apprehend, and prosecute convicted sex offenders who are out of compliance with probation, parole, have failed to register as a sex offender, or currently wanted on new charges.

On the next two pages, 10 suspects are profiled. Crime Stoppers is asking the public for information that will help law enforcement locate these suspects. Photos of each suspect are attached as email attachments. Profiles can also be found on the San Diego County Crime Stoppers website at http://www.sdcrimestoppers.com/tuesdaywso.html.

While it is impossible to predict an individual’s future actions, two suspects are highlighted as the most wanted of this list. Jose Garcia and Charles Lewis are of particular concern to our law enforcement partners. Garcia is wanted by State Parole Agents for violating the conditions of his parole. Garcia's 290 conviction offense is assault to commit rape. Garcia is listed as a transient but known to frequent the area of Chula Vista in San Diego. Lewis is wanted by the San Diego Police Department for violating the conditions of his sex registration requirements. Lewis' conviction offense is forced oral copulation with a child under the age of 14. Lewis is known to frequent the area of Linda Vista in San Diego.

Historically, the public has been very helpful in providing information on the location of fugitives profiled in the media to Crime Stoppers. Last month alone, 4 fugitive sex offenders were apprehended with the help of tips to Crime Stoppers. The public is urged to come forward with information on these suspects as soon as possible.

Crime Stoppers will pay rewards of up to $1,000 for information that leads to a felony arrest. Crime Stoppers’ anonymous tip line number is (888) 580-8477. Anonymous email and text messages can be sent in via www.sdcrimestoppers.com.
