CONVENIENCE STORE CLERK STABBED DURING A ROBBERY IN SAN YSIDRO

A clerk at a convenience store was critically stabbed during a robbery in the 2000 block of Dairy Mart Road, in San Ysidro at about 4:00 a.m. today.

The suspect entered the store, displayed a large knife and demanded cash from the clerk. The suspect then tried to rob a customer in the store and the clerk hit the suspect in the back with a stool. The suspect then attacked the clerk, stabbing him multiple times. The clerk was able to disarm the suspect who then fled from the store.

The clerk was transported to a local trauma center where underwent several hours of surgery.

The suspect is described as a Hispanic male in his twenties, 5'8" tall, medium build, wearing a gray hooded sweatshirt and denim jeans.

A photo of the suspect taken from a surveillance camera is being released to the media.

Anyone with information on the suspect is asked to call the San Diego Police Department Robbery Unit at (619) 531-2299 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
