

THE CITY OF SAN DIEGO

NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 3, 2011

CONTACT: Jorge Duran, Lieutenant
(619) 531-2359

ARREST MADE IN OCEAN BEACH WINDOW ETCHING VANDALISM CASE

(San Diego, CA) San Diego Police Department Gang Unit detectives, working with Western Division officers, arrested Jonathan Gurr (20), for a vandalism series involving the etching of several storefront windows and glass doors in the communities of Ocean Beach and Pacific Beach.

On January 25, 2011, three suspects damaged over 100 windows and glass doors of businesses along 4800 Newport Avenue in Ocean Beach. The suspects used unknown tools to carve their street names in the window and door glass. The estimated cost replace the damaged windows exceeded $100,000.00.

On Wednesday, March 2, 2011, Gang Unit Investigators assigned to the Graffiti Team and officers from Western Division served a search warrant at a residence in Pacific Beach and arrested Jonathan Gurr without incident. Gurr was previously identified as a suspect in the case. Gurr was booked into county jail and is being held on multiple counts of vandalism.

The investigation is continuing.

**###