SAN DIEGO POLICE DEPARTMENT ANNOUNCES NEW CONFIDENTIAL COMPLAINT HOTLINE

(San Diego, CA) The San Diego Police Department announces the introduction of a new confidential complaint hotline.

As part of Chief William Lansdowne's seven point strategy to combat the recent increase of officer misconduct cases, the Department has set up a new 24 hour hotline that citizens, as well as members of the Department, may use to report instances of suspected misconduct by San Diego Police Officers.

The hotline will be completely confidential and calls will be retrieved on a daily basis. Callers may leave a message stating their concerns or allegations and the information will be reviewed by the Chief of Police.

The hotline number is (619) 531-2672. As of Thursday, May 12, 2011, the hotline was operational.

The San Diego Police Department wants the citizens we serve, as well as the members of the Department, to have the highest level of confidence in our officers.
