PARENTS ARRESTED IN 2009 DEATH OF INFANT DAUGHTER

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives have arrested the parents of three-month-old Aziya Davinger, who was found dead in her Serra Mesa home in October, 2009.

On October 13, 2009, a male called police from 9060 Gramercy Drive to report the death of a three-month-old child. An autopsy revealed Aziya died of multiple unexplained injuries inflicted over time, and her death was ruled a homicide.

The Homicide Unit investigated Aziya's death for the past 17 months and identified Steven and Sara Davinger as suspects responsible for acts and omissions that led to their daughter's death.

This morning, at approximately 9:00 a.m., Homicide Unit detectives, with the assistance of the Naval Criminal Investigative Service (NCIS), arrested the Davingers at Naval Station – 32nd Street. The Davingers are being processed at Headquarters and will be booked into San Diego Central Jail and Las Colinas Women's Detention Facility for felony child abuse.
