

Media Advisory

Contact: Matt Weathersby SDPD (Ret.)
(619) 840-2706
guacamolebowl.com
mw92102@yahoo.com

Guacamole Bowl Competition “pits” Cops vs. Kiwanis

35 teams offer up unique recipes at annual event.

What: 9th Law Enforcement Challenge- “Guacamole Bowl”

- 200 competitors on over 35 teams, will square-off in San Diego's largest guacamole making contest
- 2,000 pounds of avocados, jalapeños, tomatoes and onions
- Guacamole recipes both traditional to not-so traditional
- Celebrity judges including: police chiefs, business leaders and radio & TV personalities
- Live entertainment- Chula Vista High School's Mariachis
- Kiwanis Club International-2012 Challenge Category participants

When: Saturday, February, 25th 2012 (10AM – 3PM)

Open to the public at 10:00 a.m.
(Guacamole sampling- 10:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.)

Where: Balboa Park Club - 2150 Pan American Road West (Balboa Park)

Cost: Only $5 at the door includes all of the chips and guacamole you can eat and you get to vote for your favorite guacamole recipes.

WHY: To determine who makes the best guacamole: Cops or Kiwanis.

Benefits: Over the past eight years the “Guacamole Bowl”, which is co-sponsored by the San Diego Park & Recreational Therapeutic Recreation Services, has raised over $55,000 in support of local programs for athletes with developmental disabilities.

This year's recipient:

SPORTS for Exceptional Athletes an organization that provides sporting programs to over 1,400 athletes with developmental disabilities. s4ea.org