POLICE INVESTIGATE SUSPICIOUS DEATHS IN LA JOLLA

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit detectives are investigating the suspicious deaths of a male and female found inside a La Jolla residence.

At approximately 12:18 p.m., San Diego Police Department Communications Division received a call from a concerned family member, asking for the police to check the welfare of a husband and wife living in the 8700 block of Caminito Sueno, in La Jolla. The family member was very concerned when they were unable to reach the couple by telephone this morning.

Patrol officers responded to the home and discovered an 81 year old male and 77 year old female deceased inside the home. Based on the suspicious nature of the deaths, the Homicide Unit is conducting the death investigations. The home was found secure and investigators do not believe there are any outstanding suspects.

The cause and manner of the deaths are not known at this time. Detectives are currently checking for any witnesses and processing the scene for evidence. Autopsies will be performed by the Medical Examiner's office.

The decedents have been identified, but their names will not be released at this time.
