POLICE INVESTIGATE DETECTIVES INVESTIGATE ATTEMPT MURDER

San Diego Police Detectives assigned to the Southeastern Division are investigating the attempt murder of a 25 year old man at a Valencia Park Gas Station.

At 246 a.m., San Diego Police Department Communications Division received a call from an employee at the gas station reporting an assault. San Diego Police officers from the Southeastern Division responded to the gas station in the 5100 block of Imperial Avenue.

Upon arrival, officers discovered the victim lying in the parking lot and suffering from head wounds. Evidence shows the victim was attacked with a blunt object. Paramedics arrived and transported the male to a local hospital.

The attached pictures are of the suspect and his vehicle. The suspect appears to be a white male in his 50's with a heavy build. He is wearing a green, white and orange jacket which is similar to a Miami Dolphins jacket, an orange shirt, camouflage pants that are tucked in his black military style boots and a camouflage hat.

The motive for the crime has not been determined.

Anyone with information about this incident is encouraged to call the San Diego Police Department at (619) 531-2000 or Crime Stoppers at (888) 580-8477.
