Women Volunteers in Law Enforcement Event

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department will be highlighting the contributions of female retired senior volunteer patrol members. Volunteer equipment, teams of female volunteers and Assistant Chief Shelley Zimmerman will be available at the 94th Aero Squadron Restaurant on Monday, June 10th. The event will begin at 11:30 am and will be followed by a brunch.

The basic mission of the Retired Senior Volunteer Patrol is crime prevention. These women work in direct contact with the San Diego Police Department. They perform many duties including searching for the missing, enforcing disabled parking, conducting "You Are Not Alone" (YANA) home visits for the homebound, Homeland Security assignments, traffic control, neighborhood watch and other community engagement functions. As such, they are a vital and integral component for the San Diego Police Department. Their success and volunteerism have aided the mission of the San Diego Police Department greatly.

We'd like to highlight the women members of the RSVP program at this event and discuss the uniquely effective approach and perspectives offered to the public. Please join us Monday, June 10, 2013 at 11:30 am at 8885 Balboa Ave, San Diego 92123.
