Up to $1,000 Reward Offered

October 15, 2013

San Diego County Crime Stoppers and investigators from the San Diego Police Department's Eastern Division are asking for assistance from the public to help identify and locate an unknown suspect wanted for assault with a deadly weapon. The incident occurred in the parking lot of Qualcomm Stadium immediately following the Chargers vs. Cowboys game.

Investigators said on Sunday, September 29, 2013, immediately following the Chargers vs. Cowboys game, a fight broke out in the parking lot of Qualcomm Stadium. There were two victims and two suspects in this case. The first victim, an adult white male, was struck over the head with a beer bottle and suffered minor injuries. The suspect in that incident was identified as 41-year-old Ramon Heredia. Heredia has been arrested and charged with assault with a deadly weapon. The second victim, an Asian male, was also struck over the head with a beer bottle by a different suspect. The victim suffered multiple lacerations to his head and received 13 staples. The suspect in this case is unknown and remains at-large.

Unknown Suspect Description: Hispanic male or light skinned Black male, 5'8"-5'11" tall, 190-220 lbs., brown hair, which was very short with shaved sides (military style). He was wearing a dark blue Dallas Cowboys t-shirt, blue dickie shorts, white socks and sneakers. The suspect may have contacts in the Inglewood and Hawthorne area of Los Angeles.
