POLICE ARREST FEMALE FOR MURDER OF MAN IN THE SAN DIEGO RIVERBED

San Diego Police Department Homicide Unit Investigators arrested Jayne Colantonio, 47 years old, for the murder of a man found in the Grantville area of the San Diego River.

Homicide Detectives were investigating the death of a male in his 40s who had apparently been stabbed on March 18, 2014. Two individuals who appeared to possibly have known the suspect were detained and were people of interest at the time. Further investigation revealed Colantonio of San Diego was a suspect in the case and she was arrested for murder and booked into San Diego County Jail at 12:30 A.M. Colantonio was the deceased male's girlfriend of several years. The second person of interest was booked into jail for an unrelated charge.

The identity of the deceased male is still being withheld until next of kin is notified.
