Mid-City Division's Juvenile Services Team (JST) will be delivering toys with Santa Claus to underprivileged children throughout City Heights. JST partnered with Councilmember Marti Emerald's Office, the San Diego Police Officer's Association, community members, and San Diego City School District. The school district helped identify children in several schools and in the community that are in need. Many of the children have demonstrated good will and hard work throughout the year.

This is an opportunity to reach out to the families of over 200 children and extend holiday greetings. We are excited to deliver the toys and see the smiles on each of the children we visit. JST will gather at Mid-City Division at 7:30 a.m. and then go out in vehicles to deliver the gifts.
